WARNER ROBINS HIGH SCHOOL
Warner Robins, Georgia
Volume XXIX

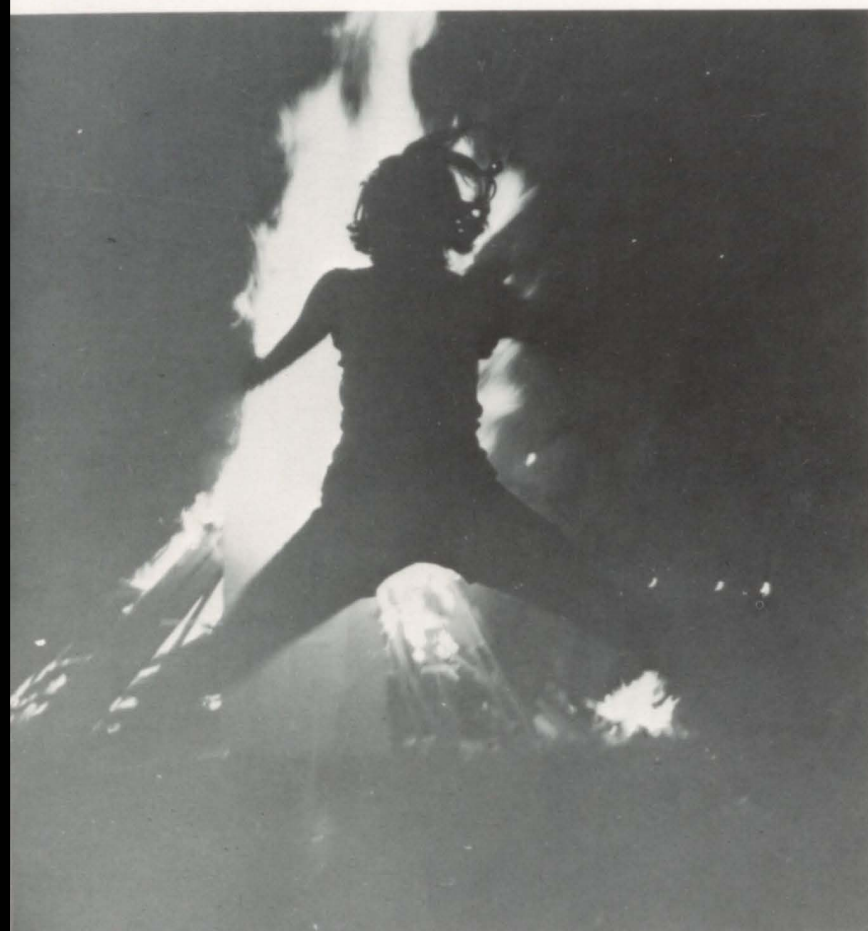

Foreword

You come for a few days—
 You come for a month—three years
 You come to stay. It does not matter. There is no clock, no calendar. The passing of things holds no weight in the greatness of your
 SPIRIT

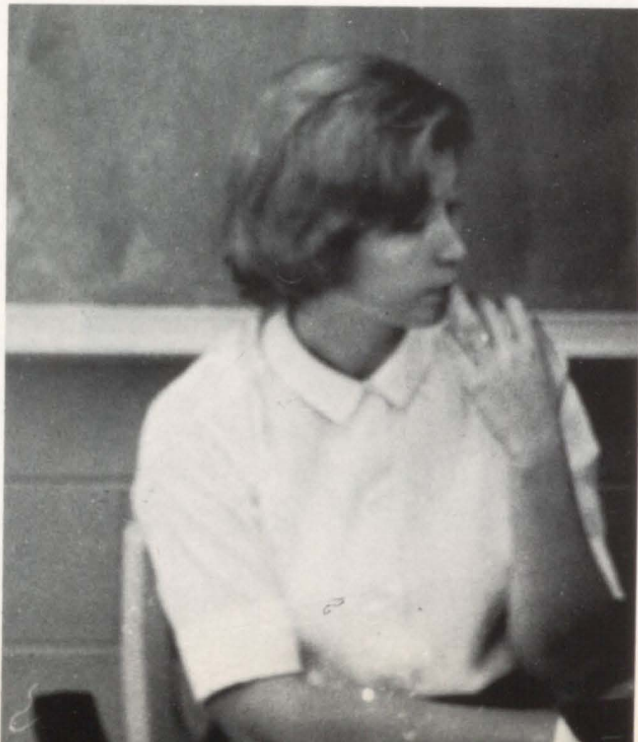

Caught up in the fury of a football game or sunken in study, the time is not important—your feeling of oneness with the school is the thing that counts. Our school is great.
OUR SCHOOL.

To Mrs. Breeden

You are young, Mrs. Breeden: that, even disregarding a thousand patient hours—uncounted occasions of railing at the bungling of children—moments when your face radiated something of the saint—yes, even the anguish you shared with us, and the elations—just your youth in fact and heart—has always made you one of us.

Faculty

This page presents our indispensable principal and faculty. Their help and guidance enable us to lead more useful and happy lives. They are our friends and fellow workers.

MR. JOSEPH P. WILLIAMSON

Mr. Williamson's first year at WRHS has been filled with proof of his driving school spirit; his interest and participation in the affairs of his students, his concern for our progress, his feeling of identity with his school: All these predict a great future for him and for WRHS.

V.I.P.'s

With every step we cross new lines,
Every boundary liberates one future,
Closing off another chamber of time.
It is beautiful, this crossing of lines
and passing of boundaries;
Look! It is life we enter into.

Secretary: Pat Fox

As We entered into our final year of High School, we, as Seniors, realized that we were on the threshold of adult life. The paths that lay ahead in the future are many for each of us and they are open to all. The one which we choose depends entirely upon ourselves. But no matter what career we plan to follow, we will always look back and fondly remember our wonderful years at Warner Robins High School, that meant so much to each of us.

Out of universal opportunity there arises a group of achievers ... it is the purpose and the duty of the Beta Club to recognize and to encourage this achievement. High aspirations and far-reaching ideals for all ... a better preparation for the burdens, the responsibilities, of leadership in a new world.

Thanks to the Warner Robins Fire Department for making these pictures possible.

Every year is a lifetime.

Make me strong,
every year:

Give me the power of youth
to live totally to love life, and the work of Life,
Which is everything.

Work
is involving me in the world:
Play
is the springtime of every year.
Spirit
is life's jackpot—

It is picking up stars and throwing them
to cast light on what comes after;
Yes, it is shouting to let tomorrow know
that we live.

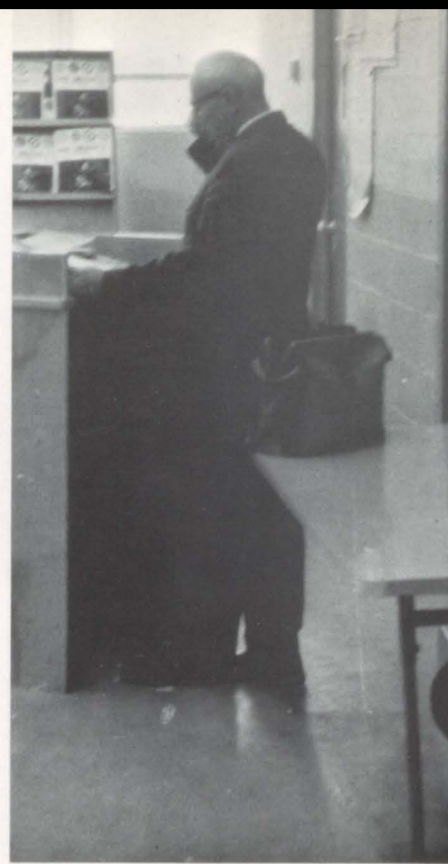

It is a concentration on truth
 For ourselves,
 And for all things:
 Is is solitude and joy,
 And surprise and satisfaction.

Spirit is our big YES YES to life . . .

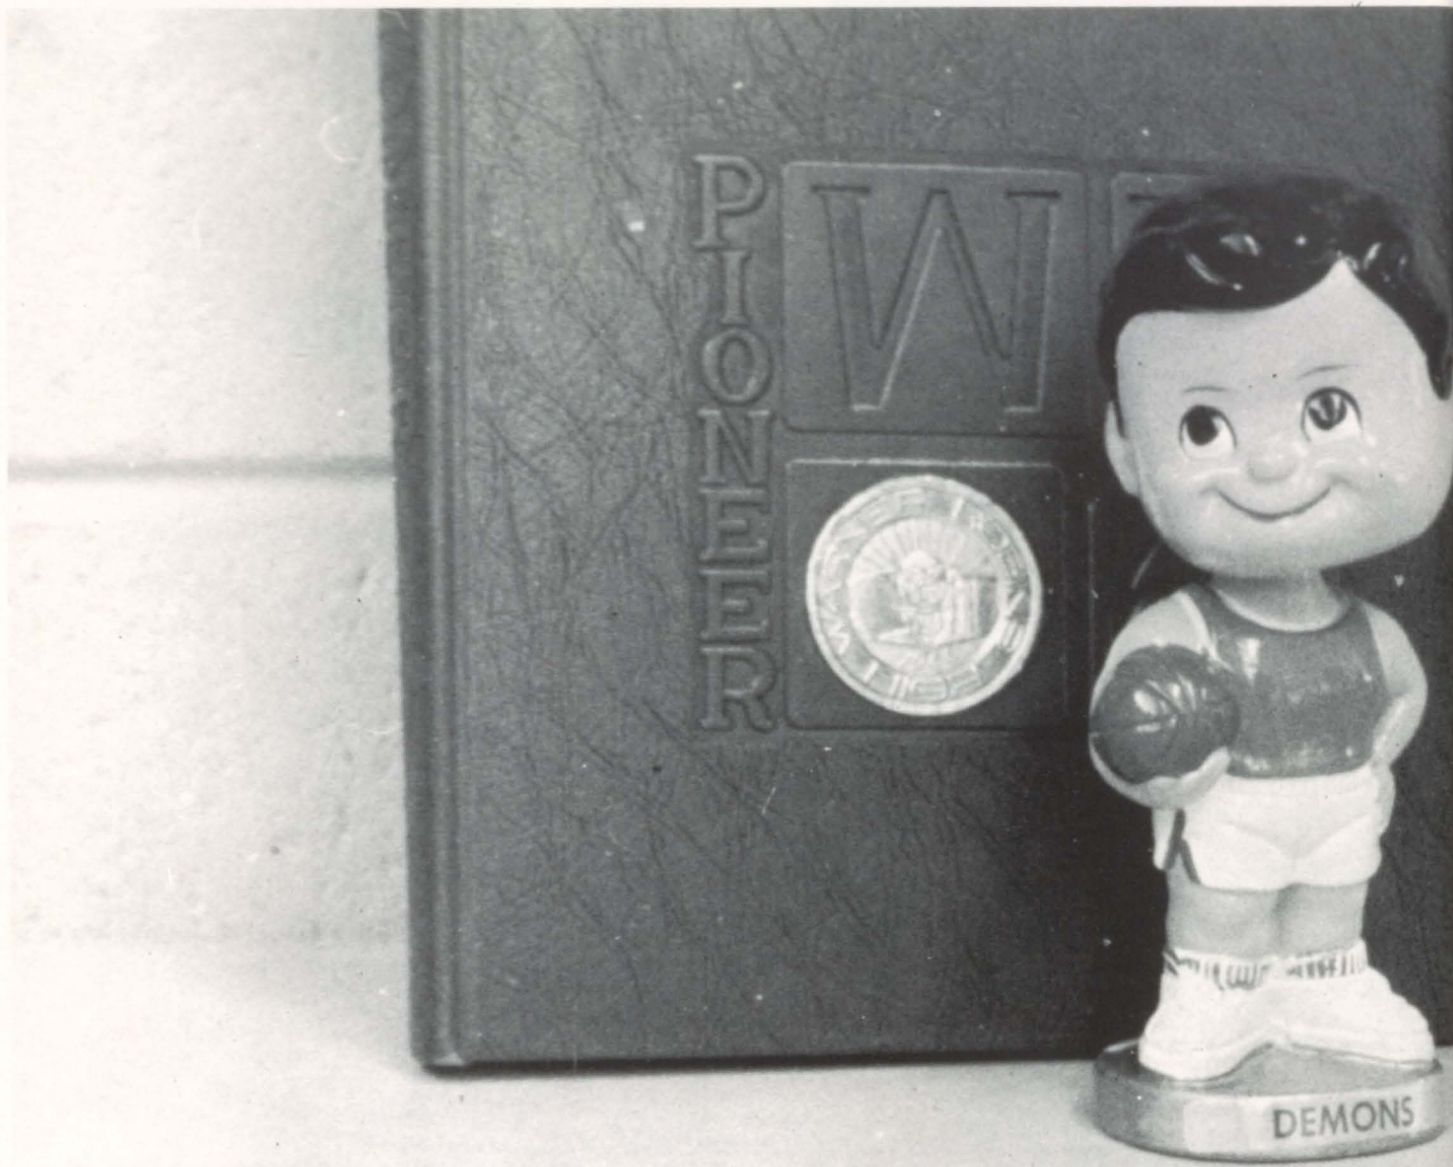

For we can never say no to tomorrow,
Even if our foresight is dim;
We have the light, someday is coming:
What if someday comes tomorrow?

Believe yourself;
Believe yourself—
You and I
Build the world.
If someday comes tomorrow
We are ready.

This year Warner Robins High School has had more School Spirit than ever before. The Student Body stuck by dear old alma mater when there was no alma mater to stick by. They showed a loyalty not often found.

My special thanks to both Mrs. Breeden, and Mr. Williamson for making this yearbook possible. And many thanks to the staff and everyone who has helped us.

I hope that the coming year will bring many new and exciting occurrences; I hope next year we will be able to produce a book in our new school. Good luck to the coming classes; and here's hoping you will maintain as much school spirit as we, WRHS have kept up this year.

Sincerely
Lucy H. Bunkley
